BIG-TIME WESTERN JAZZ HITS NILES UNDER AEGIS OF TEXAS IMPRESARIO

By STUART NIXON

Mountain music is a big business in the Niles flatlands. The Township community, once the center of California moviedom, is riding the crest of post-war interest in the whinny-and-giftdiddle field.

It's all due to a stalwart, generous-nosed Texan in an alabaster

IKE HEADQUARTERS IN CENTERVILLE

"All groups interested in Eisenhower, regardless of their party affiliations, are welcome to use the headquarters," Parry said.

Val Tuchsens is headquarters chairman, and will have a staff on hand to register voters of any party, both on Saturday and evenings from Monday through Thursday, which is the registration deadline.

Other local registration spots are at the County Building, at the business establishments of Vernon Ellsworth and Cy Solon in Niles, and at Freeman's Market, Newark. The latter booth will operate Saturday afternoon only.

NEWARK BANK WINS STATE APPROVAL; U. S. HURDLE NEXT

Newark's hometown bank cleared a big hurdle this week with announcement that Maurice C. Sparling, state superintendent of banking, had oked the application of Central Valley Bank of California to establish an office in the local community.

The announcement came from Charles P. Partridge, president of Central Valley. He termed it "a great step toward realization of a bank for Newark."

In less than two weeks, Partridge added, formal action on the application is expected from the Federal Reserve Board. If the FRB approves the plea, Central Valley "will act immediately," Partridge asserted.

The banker said he is "very pleased" with response, locally to an appeal to purchase shares of bank stock to show interest for the State and Federal agencies.

He explained the Federal Reserve never moves until it sees what action is taken by the State authorities.

A group of Newark Chamber of Commerce members, headed by Paul Gygas, has been working toward the bank for six months. If Central Valley's application is successful, the Newark branch will be its eleventh. Home offices are in Richmond.

"We are waiting until the FRB acts until we decide on a definite location," a bank spokesman told The Register this week. "We have not decided whether to use some existing building or what. Some people there have offered to build one for us."

UNITED RUSSIANS IN TRAFFIC COURT

S. F. RUSSIANS IN TRAFFIC COURT

Unusual attire and barbering featured a traffic trial Tuesday in Centerville justice court.

Defendant was Sister Mariana Kondakova, 31, Russian nun from San Francisco, who was charged with changing lanes without signalling and causing a spectacular accident near Warm Springs in mid-July. Two of her passengers, also nuns, were seriously hurt in the crash with a truck.

With Sister Kondakova in court were two more Orthodox nuns, also in their distinctive habits, and the convent's abbot, a distinguished patriarch with flowing black hair and beard.

Judge E. A. Quaresma found Sister Kondakova guilty after a brief trial, but suspended sentence in the case. In the same accident, Truck Driver Joe Magliolo of San Jose, was fined for speeding.

PLANS FOR 700 HOMES DISCLOSED

Success of a higher-priced subdivision near Centerville this week prompted Builder James R. Meyer to announce plans for 700 more homes.

Meyer has completed 25 houses, ranging in price from $14,000 to $19,500, just off Central Avenue in what is known as Glenmoor Gardens.

Today he told The Register another batch of 44 reaching toward Blacow Road are "half sold already," and that he has upped his ultimate plans to include more than 700 houses in the tract. He also announced plans for:

1. A shopping district in the area, probably on Glenmoor Avenue;
2. A park with a swimming pool;
3. A school, probably in the center of the tract. He said the Centerville School District is co-operating, since 700 homes will mean around 2500 population.

"Most of my buyers want larger homes," Meyers said. "They want 1800 square feet, and are paying up to $19,500." Meyer recently moved his headquarters here from San Leandro.

Four Lose Licenses

Four license suspensions and one revocation in this area were announced this week by the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Chester Wayne Russell, RFD Box 475, Niles, had his license revoked for a third drunken driving conviction.

Suspended were the licenses of William R. Beaty, Irvington, reckless driving; Porfirio H. Gonzales, Niles, drunken driving; Peter G. Salles, 922 Tenth Street, Decoto, and Guadalupe Arroyo, Niles, no insurance.

HOSPITAL CHIEFS SEEK $1,250,000; SAY BONDS WON'T UP TAXES 15 CENTS

Directors of the Washington Township Hospital District this week decided to ask for $1,250,000 in building bonds at their November 4 election.

They made the decision after Architect LaRue Sorenson estimated the hospital project—building, equipment, landscaping, fees and incidentals—will cost $1,219,912. Sorenson made his guess with the help of professional estimators.

The directors, led by Chairman L. S. Whitaker, met last week with all the Township's doctors to consider plans of the handsome, modern 50-bedroom hospital which will occupy a 10-acre site on Santos Road if the bonds are voted.

Then they met again Wednesday night and made public their plans. Whitaker stressed:

"We are taxing the township 20 cents per $100 now. With interest included, we can retire these bonds in 20 years with an increase of only 15 cents, even if the hospital doesn't net a dime. However it most certainly will, so we can figure on far less."

Sorenson estimated the two-story building itself will cost $804,000, equipment (beds, furniture, office supplies, surgical equipment, partial x-ray equipment, etc.) another $206,000; landscaping $50,000, architect, engineer and inspector fees $78,850; "contingencies" about $80,000.

The directors decided to ask for the round sum — $300,000 above top estimates—and explained they will not sell the entire amount of the bonds if it is not needed.

Directors M. F. Silva, A. E. Alameda and S. G. Scott were declared re-elected, since they were not opposed, and were relieved of the necessity of running on the November 4 ballot. Silva and Alameda will serve four years, Scott two.

The directors will be represented next Monday at 8 p.m. at the meeting of the Mission San Jose Chamber of Commerce. The hospital plan will be explained to the Chamber.

Prank Hurts Boy

A 13-year old Centerville schoolboy injured himself Saturday when he tried to leap from the roof of the local elementary school.

Hospitalized for a lacerated tongue and bruises about the body was Wayne Allen, eighth-grade student at the school. Principal Tom Maloney said Allen climbed to the roof of the school cafeteria, missed and fell 15 feet when he tried to jump across to a platform outside the auditorium. The youth is recovering at home.

CANNERY WORKERS GIVE FAREWELL DINNER

As a gesture of appreciation for their bosses, the cannery workers at Schuckl's, night shift, gave a dinner last Friday night, not only to commemorate the closing of the season, but also as a farewell to Schuckl's, which will shortly be turned over to an eastern paint firm.

Presentations of gifts were made to Al Teeter, Eddie Martin and Mrs. Mary Pine. Thirty-three were present.

Ernest Phippen Is Auto Victim

Two local men, one a Newark civic leader, were fatally injured this week in a head-on collision just south of the Alameda County line.

Dead are:

Ernest F. Phippen, 38, of 441 Olive Street, Newark, a Morton Salt Company employee.

Julian D. Mata, 27, of 205 Fifth Street, Decoto.

Cars driven by Phippen and Mata crashed Monday night on Highway 17 near Warm Springs. Both men died the following day in a San Jose hospital.

Injured in the tragic accident were Phippen's wife, Patricia, 44, who suffered a broken nose and severe lacerations; and two passengers in Mata's car, Arturo Moreno, 19, and Arnulfo Trejo, 27, both of Decoto, who escaped with superficial cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Phippen was released from the hospital Wednesday.

Her husband, active in Chamber of Commerce and Knights of Pythias work, leaves four children, John, Kaye, Jennie and Donald; as well as two brothers, Frank and Walter of Decoto; and a sister, Mrs. Doris Marshall of Decoto.

Funeral services for Phippen are tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Chapel of the Palms under auspices of the Knights of Pythias, with interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose. Phippen also was a member of Abuzaid No. 201 of DOKK. The Pythians' annual barbecue was to have been held at his home Sunday.

Mata's funeral will be at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow from Berge Mortuary Co., Niles, with requiem mass at 9 o'clock in Decoto Catholic Church and interment in Holy Ghost Cemetery.

He leaves his father and five brothers and sisters in Santa Ana.

SAUCERS DIDN'T COME FROM MARS

There is no evidence to support the idea that the phenomena described as "flying saucers" are of extra-terrestrial origin.

This was the opinion expressed in Berkeley this week at the meeting of the Western Amateur Astronomers' convention by Dr. Otto Struve, internationally noted professor of astronomy at the University of California.

Dr. Struve said the "green fireball" type of objects are undoubtedly ordinary meteorites.

The shining objects, or "lights," that have been observed must be explained in terms of some ordinary physical phenomenon, either produced artificially by man or explainable in terms of ordinary laws of physics, the scientist said. One possible explanation is temperature inversion in the case of ordinary visible light.

Dr. Struve said the idea that the "saucers" are directed by beings from another world must be discounted. He pointed out that within the solar system the earth is the only planet capable of supporting intelligent forms of life.

If planets like the earth, capable of supporting intelligent life, do exist in other star systems, the chances are they would be at least 50,000 light years away (one light year is equal to nearly 6,000 billion miles). The being on such a planet, if they exist and if they had adequate instruments for detecting the light from the earth's sun, would receive such light emitted by the sun 50,000 years ago.

If such beings had any knowledge of human beings on the earth they would be aware now of the type of human beings that populated the earth at the time of the Neanderthal man, Dr. Struve said.

"Chances are that they would be completely disinterested in what the Neanderthal man was doing or thinking," he added.

RAIL CROSSING CRASHES RISE

Accidents at railroad grade crossings throughout California totaled 2,314 for the calendar year 1951, with 163 deaths and 899 injuries, according to reports by railroads to the California Public Utilities Commission.

The 1951 figures show an increase of 4.1 per cent over 1950 in the number of crossing accidents, 27.3 per cent increase in the number killed and 9.8 per cent increase in the number injured.

Severity of grade crossing accidents is shown by a comparison with highway accidents as a whole. While 30 were injured for each person killed in highway accidents, one person died for each 5 1/2 persons injured in a grade crossing accident.

"These figures indicate two things," said R. E. Mittelstaedt, president of the Commission. "First, there must be a continuous and concerted effort to complete the commission's recommendations to eliminate hazards at crossings by installing the most efficient warning signals."

DRUNK DRIVERS PAY $600 FINES

Drunk driving fines totaled $600 Tuesday in traffic court conducted here by Judge E. A. Quaresma.

Biggest fine—$200—was imposed on Jesse M. Jones, 26, of Bradford Court, Niles Canyon Road, who was arrested after a week-end accident.

Elmo Botello, 60, of 340 J Street, Niles, was fined $150. Imposts of $125 each were meted out to Rudolfo C. Hernandez, 27, of 416 Eighth Street, Decoto, and Alner Escandon, 27, of 1115 Levee Street, Alvarado.

Officers said Herandez tried to outrun their patrol car in Decoto and that Escandon, though warned, persisted in driving his truck in Alvarado while intoxicated.

Looking Backward

What was going on in Washington Township just ten years ago this week?

If your memory is good, you'll probably recall that the biggest thing—about the ONLY thing—that was uppermost in people's minds at that time was the war.

According to the Register files TEN YEARS AGO

George Smith, Decoto tile manufacturer, left for Hawthorne, Nevada, to serve as a civilian employee of the Twelfth Naval District, as inspector of construction.

Ensign Francis Howe was on special duty at the Naval Training School at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine.

The second junk metal drive in Niles netted 3300 pounds, most of it derived from the Starr ranch in Mission San Jose. Because the chairman of the drive, Dr. T. C. Wilson, was called to do clinical work at San Quentin Sunday afternoon, he and another committeeman, Walter Waynflete, got the jump on the collection work by putting in Saturday afternoon, using a truck donated by the Edenvale Nursery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Maphet entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsay and son, Andrew.

Walter Waynflete, editor and publisher of the Register at that time, wrote an editorial as follows:

Note to American Legion Post: How about scrapping those unsightly cannons outside the Niles and other township firehouses, and turning them into munitions to fire at the Japs? Those old field pieces are not ornamental. At least let them be made useful.

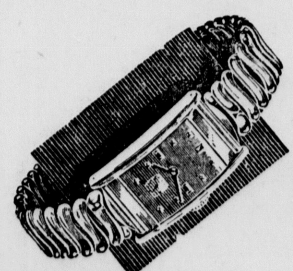

Due to the Pacific Coast dim-out, it was necessary to cancel the Navy Relief game. It was a benefit game to consist of one all-star team of the township to play the U. S. Navy men from Mare Island.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

If your memory dates back as far as the year 1932, you will be interested in recalling the headlines which then ran in the Register. The Register at that time had as its editor Norman Parks, whose forthright editorials and sensational news stories kept the citizenry in a constant state of apprehension and suspense.

Twenty years ago this week: The Safeway Store in Niles was burglarized. Missing was a wrist watch belonging to the manager, Jack Nobriga, and

WATER ORCHARDS, 'COT MEN TOLD

Light irrigation of apricot orchards is generally advised for Southern Alameda County, says Lee Benson, farm advisor.

As a result of inspecting the soil moisture conditions in 25 local orchards Benson advises a light irrigation to fill only the top three feet of soil with water. Over half of the orchards had soil moisture near the permanent-wilting-percentage. Moisture conditions from three feet to six feet were excellent for tree growth and bud maturity. Since approximately 85 per cent of the feeder roots are in the upper three feet of soil, the soil moisture must be replenished to insure satisfactory growth.

The Yolo clay loams along Santos Road were found to be the driest, followed by the same type of soil west of Centerville. The Yolo loam around Niles was the next driest while the Dublin clay loams near Irvington and Hayward had the best soil moisture conditions.

Benson cautions putting on too much water. "Three to four inches of water would fill the driest soil to field capacity. More water would be too expensive—from an increased power bill, and from damage to the lower root system of the trees. Too much water could accentuate troubles encountered from the wet winter just experienced.

An example illustrates that a 600 gallon a minute pump would require but three hours to put four inches of water on one acre.

CAFETERIA NOT OPEN

Parents of Niles school children have been advised by Principal E. D. Bristow that the school cafeteria will not be open next Monday, the opening day of school, but will be open on Wednesday, September 10.

School will be closed Tuesday, September 9, in observance of Admission Day.

Christian Endeavor Society. He replaced Jack Rathbone. Other officers chosen were Lorene Kearns, vice-president; and Irma Hodges, secretary-treasurer.

Norman Parks wrote in a front-page editorial:

The Democrats are lucky this year—they have a tremendously big man running for the nomination of United States Senator. If they fail to make McAddo's nomination very nearly unanimous, we will know there is something seriously the matter with California's democracy. Take the Republicans—not much to choose from—just a mediocre trio to select from. A toss-up will decide the question for any man. But the Democrats—what an opportunity!

Today's Fashions

by Betty Rose

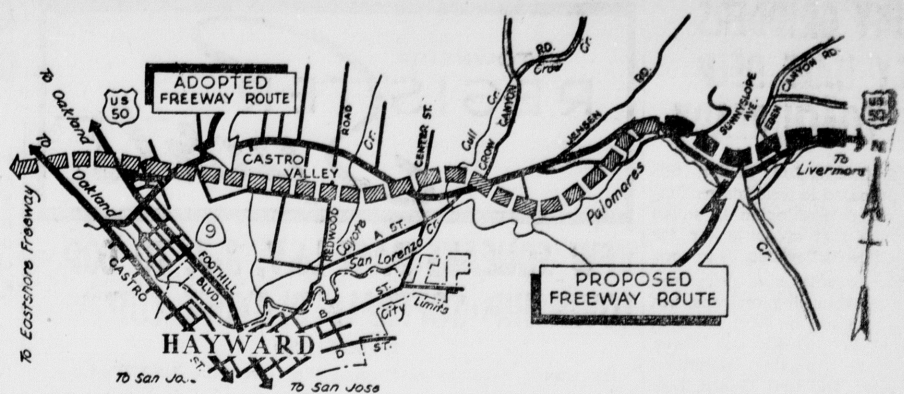

CASUAL GLAMOUR AND SLIMMED-DOWN SILHOUETTE
LEND FEMININE ALLURE TO FALL-WINTER FASHIONS

The paradox of glamour and casualness is resolved in the 1952 fall stylings of Betty Rose coats and suits. The slim silhouette, fabrics with exciting surface interest and a brand new theme in colors all are the hallmarks of milady's 1952 fall wardrobe. Glamour in fall fashions is achieved through the slim silhouette: Narrower shoulders with ample lines sustained through the rest of the garment; a new cut in sleeves which widen at the bottom and have a turn-back or simulated turn-back cuff. The casual effect is achieved through the fabrics themselves. These fabrics are characterized by surface interest such as that noted in tweeds, zibelines and boucles. Thus, the harmony of glamour and casualness is achieved through a wedding of feminine styling with virile fabrics.

This harmony is accentuated, too, in the new fall color story. In coats and suits, the mixture of black over color or black with white is dominant. This "blackening" goes on with red, brown, blue and green to create shades with subtle color appeal which develops the casual-glamour theme. In nubby, hairy and "bloom" surface fabrics these blackened colors have a rich and handsome new effect.

The coats and suits shown here, styled by Betty Rose, emphasize the general theme of the 1952 fall fashions. The versatile short coat on the left, increasing in popularity this season, certainly fits the casual-glamour theme. Gray, oatmeal, burgundy, gold and blue colors are available in this garment in an exciting combination of solid, contrasting with dramatic zibeline plain. Feminine allure characterizes the worsted twist boucle suit, center, as a "soft touch." Leather, green, mulberry, blue and black provide an exciting color selection. At the right, texture makes the material difference in the dressy coat with a casual twist. In wool boucle, accented by contrast trim of poodle cloth, it is a favorite in blue, gray, red, with gray trim, and black with black trim.

MORE FREEWAY... One and a half miles of U. S. 50 east of Castro Hill (above) has been reclassified as a proposed freeway by the California Highway Commission, thus clearing the way for eventual construction of a continuous divided highway from the Eastshore Freeway to Tracy, a distance of 40 miles. The Commission's newest route adoption and freeway declaration covers the section of U. S. 50 between 0.4 mile west of Sunnyslope Avenue and 0.4 mile east of Eden Canyon Road, estimated to cost $1,350,000, including rights of way. The Commission stressed, however, that the actual construction will necessarily depend upon the future availability of state highway funds. The Commission recently adopted and declared a freeway a new two-mile routing of U. S. 50 over Castro Hill adjoining the new freeway route on the west.

FREEDOM, ROTARY 'LIVE TOGETHER'

Rotary Clubs and freedom were pictured as co-existent here last week by Otto Heib of Oakland, district governor of the service organization.

"Rotary exists wherever there is freedom in the world," Heib told Niles Rotarians, gathered to honor him in the International Kitchen. "There are 54 clubs in Finland, but none across the Iron Curtain in Russia."

Application of service ideals of Rotary create a powerful force... for good around the earth, the official said.

President Clifford K. Dennis introduced five new members to the district governor. They are: Chester DiGiulio, Dr. Lyle Buehler, Dr. Joseph Enos, Walter Sletten and Bus Leach.

Dennis announced the following Rotary calendar events:

September 8: Joint meeting with the Hayward Club, in Hayward.

September 13: Family barbecue at PG&E Clubhouse, Newark.

September 19: Club members entertain foreign students from the International House, Berkeley.

CENTERVILLE HAS A NEW ATTORNEY

A new attorney entered practice in the Township this week with announcement that Charles B. Snow, 27, University of California graduate, will be associated with the Centerville firm of Norris and Brown.

Snow, a Navy veteran of World War II, has moved to Centerville with his wife, who is a social worker for the Red Cross in Hayward.

"I wanted to practice in a growing area," says the new lawyer, who spent his early years in Missouri. He is a 1951 graduate of Hastings College of Law in San Francisco, and passed the State Bar examinations last April. The Snows now live at 182 Oak.

HUSKY GRIDDERS ONLY HALF DEEP BUT COACH READY

Grid Coach Jud Taylor this week prepared to weld his graduation-riddled Washington Hi squad into some sort of contender for Santa Clara Valley League honors.

Taylor counts nine lettermen among his returning veterans, but at least two may be sidelined with injuries. Left Tackle Joe Abreu broke a foot playing basketball last winter, and Left Guard Tom Meeker's trick shoulder may keep him under wraps.

However, four of the returnees were starters last year: John Chacon, tabbed Taylor's Number One backfield prospect; Ed King, a cagey center; Jim Bolivia, a stellar offensive end; and Bob Brazil, a workman-like tackle who missed the last three games in 1951 due to a knee injury.

Taylor ventured a pre-season list of his team as follows:

Line: Bolivia, Brazil, King, Meeker, Ruben Espinoza, Art Goularte, Rod Hendricks, Dave Kelsch, Ed Mings, Doug Mackintosh, Gene Mayer, Dick Sylvestri, Clarence Souza, Carl Von Euw.

BACKFIELD: Chacon, Phil Pineda, Bob Lunsford.

To this list should be added the names of several promising graduates of Coach Irv Hird's championship B team. They are being counted upon heavily to fill in the empty spaces, especially in the backfield where graduation wreaked particular havoc, Taylor concluded.

Practice starts September 15, Taylor announces. He views James Lick Hi of San Jose as the club to beat. Lick had a fine all-junior team last year.

VFW SQUEAKS PAST L&V, 8-7, TO COP TOWNSHIP SOFTBALL PLAYOFF CUP

By BOB HIRD

Irvington's Veterans of Foreign Wars won the 1952 Washington Township Softball League play-off Friday, as they defeated L&V by a score of 8 to 7.

The Vets thus received the annual gold cup presented to the winners of the play-offs each year. Kleine's previously had been declared pennant winner.

VFW drew first blood in the loosely-played contest. In the second panel, three runs were scored on singles by Dave Souza, Ed Kearley and Dan Rodrigues and an error by L&V Third-Sacker Lee Moora.

The Irvingtons added two more in the third on a two-run error by Losing Pitcher John Rodrigues.

L&V broke into the tally-column in the fourth, scoring once on a walk and two errors.

Trailing, 5-2, going into the sixth frame, the Centervilles broke loose for three runs to knot the score.

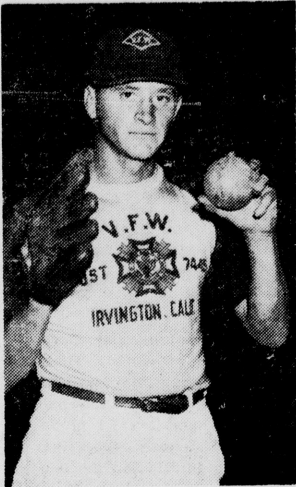

Triples by Rodrigues and Moora were the big blows in the inning.

The Vets then exploded for three runs in their half of the sixth, to lead 8-5. Three singles and Dave Souza's triple produced the three winning counters.

L&V scored twice in the last frame and had a runner on second with two away. Earl Anderson, the Vets' pitcher, then got J. Rodrigues to pop up.

ARMY WINS, 6-3, ON BEARCAT FLUBS

By TONY ROGERS

Nobody pardoned the Bearcat's errors last Friday. In fact, an alert Sixth Army nine from San Francisco took advantage of all four of them to score every one of their runs and ended the Centerville club's season on a sour note, 6 to 3.

Not one of the Sixth Army's tallies was earned. Three slid across in the first frame on one fumble and a timely hit. Three more crossed the plate in the sixth on three errors and two bingles.

Pitcher Harvey Hernandez did his best and limited the visitors to six safeties. But Hernandez was betrayed time after time by his mates afield.

Bud Marshall scored in the first on Stan Roderick's double. In the fourth Hernandez pumped a homer over left field fence, bringing Hayden Freitas home ahead of him. Both clubs were credited with two double plays.

Manager Joe Dutra pronounced the effort the final one of the year.

Score by innings:				R	H	E
Sixth Army	300	003	000	6	6	0
Bearcats	100	200	000	3	8	4

Bearcats—the Centerville variety—feasted on steak and watermelon two weeks ago when, their boss, Joe Dutra, took the team to Sid's Resort on the San Joaquin River as a reward for winning the East Oakland Winter Baseball League earlier this year.

Swimming, boat riding and fishing highlighted the party, although the fish which were caught had to be tossed back because of a lack of size.

Dutra presented club members with gold baseballs emblematic of their Winter League win.

600 STEAKS AT POTTERY BARBECUE

Stonybrook Park in Niles Canyon was the scene of one of the gayest holiday picnics in the whole area last Monday. It was the annual barbecue given by the California Pottery Company, Niles, for the employees, their families, and friends.

"We served 600 steaks," said George Mays, superintendent of the company, "in addition to several gallons of potato salad, beans and corn. Also two truckloads of beer and pop."

He added: "The employees committee helped out a lot, doing most of the work. And it really takes a lot of work to prepare all that food."

Those who attended the barbecue agreed that even the hot weather didn't curtail the fun. Happy faces of adults and children alike attested to that.

OLD TUSKO—One of the first to be diesel powered, this track-type tractor plowed 6880 acres in 46 days at a cost of 7.78 cents per acre in 1932 at Arlington, Ore. Old Tusko, honored recently with former drivers, is still going strong on its 20th anniversary.

OLD HAT—Well, maybe, but Shelly Fairchild, perching on a piling at Miami Beach, thinks her swimming tube is some topper. Her suit is two-piece—obviously.

OLD STYLE—Pitcher Joel Spector fingers the ball for an outcurve the way he did when he hurled his second no-hitter in five days for Brooklyn's Poly Prep. He bats .333 and is headed for a niche in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

NEW SYNTHETICS ARE FUN TO WEAR—AND EASY TO LAUNDER IN A WASHER!

by the
General Electric Consumers Institute

If it's washable... use your washing machine. And that goes for the new synthetics as well as for other fabrics. It may surprise you, but that's the recommendation of experts in the General Electric Consumers Institute, where extensive laundering tests have been carried out on the most common synthetic fabrics.

Although washing instructions now found on synthetic fabrics (such as Orlon, Dacron, Nylon, Dynel, Fiberglas, etc.) usually recommend hand washing, tests have proven that laundering these fabrics in a washer leaves fewer wrinkles in the garments—and that most of the garments need no ironing when washed in the washer and allowed to drip dry.

Check Construction
Garment construction, particularly the trim and lining, is a major governing factor in deciding whether a garment is washable. But if the fabric manufacturer says it's washable, save yourself time and energy by using your washer, with warm water and a mild soap or detergent in all cases.

Before washing any synthetic-fabric clothing, test the seams by scratching the edges with a fingernail to make sure the seams do not unravel.

For best results, pad with wash cloths the shoulders of all garments which are to drip dry, and finger press seams, collars and cuffs occasionally as the fabric dries. In some cases, seams, trimmings and pockets may be ironed, when dry, with a cool iron for best results.

Here are the Consumers Institute instructions for laundering synthetic fabrics in an automatic washer:

100% Dacron Suit
(all "findings"—lining, etc.—Dacron)
Wash 3-5 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 3 minutes. Remove from washer without spinning, wringing or squeezing. Hang trousers by cuffs on pants hanger; hang jacket on well-shaped wooden or plastic coat hanger. Pad shoulders with wash cloths and smooth shoulders with palm of hand. Allow to drip dry; weight of the water will press the suit as it dries.

Viso (55% Dacron-45% wool) or Lorette (55% Orlon-45% Wool) Dress (accordion-pleated skirt)
Wash 2 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 2 minutes. Remove from washer, hang on well-shaped hanger; pad shoulders. Allow to drip dry.

Nylon Dress
Wash 3 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 3 minutes. Remove from washer. Hang on well-shaped padded clothes hanger. Allow to drip dry. Finger press seams to prevent puckering as dress dries.

Nylon-Rayon Dress
Wash 3 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 3 minutes. Allow to drip dry. Press, when dry, with iron set for "rayon."

Dynel Baby Blanket
Wash 1 1/2 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 1 1/2 minutes, spin-dry 3 minutes. Place in automatic clothes dryer for 15 minutes. Blanket needs no stretching but may be brushed in one direction with soft brush. Press binding with steam iron.

Orlon Coat
Wash 1 1/2 minutes, spin 3 minutes, rinse 1 1/2 minutes, spin-dry 3 minutes. Place in automatic clothes dryer for 25-30 minutes. When dry, hang on well-shaped clothes hanger, shape, and air.

Nylon, Fiberglas, Dacron or Orlon
Curtains (marquisette-weave)
Shake curtains to remove dust. Place them in pillow cases or mesh bags (2-3 curtains per bag). Use 3-minute wash, 3-minute spin and 3-minute rinse. Remove from washer, squeeze gently to remove excess water, and hang on rust-proof curtain rods.

SHERIFF STILL NEEDS RESERVES - BAD!

More Washington Township recruits are needed for Sheriff's Reserve training starting September 15, Sheriff H. P. Gleason said this week.

"Unless more volunteers sign for the forthcoming program, it will be impractical to give the course scheduled at Washington Union High School," Gleason said.

According to plans, the eight-month course in basic law enforcement work will start one week from Monday, at 7 p.m. Students will be given the same type of training taken by regular sheriff's officers, including legal procedure, first aid, traffic and crowd control, civil defense organization and radiological orientation.

"In the event of disaster or emergency, sheriff's reserves serve side by side with regular officers," Gleason explained. He cited service rendered by reserves last winter in clearing Washington and Eden Township roads and flooded areas of debris, and assisting in traffic control.

Continuing training for reserves includes standing watch, riding patrol with regular officers, practice exercises in traffic control, and lectures, demonstration, and problems in all phases of law enforcement. The training program is directed by Sheriff's Lt. Floyd Heffron and Stanley N. Petersen, assisted by officers holding adult teaching credentials.

MANUEL NUNES OF CENTERVILLE DIES

Manuel S. Nunes, Centerville cannery employee, died Sunday in a San Jose hospital after a brief illness.

A native of the Azores, Nunes leaves his widow, Mae Marks Nunes; a sister, Mrs. Teresa Johnson of San Francisco, and a grandson, Robert Sousa, U. S. Army.

Nunes was a member of UPEC Lodge No. 5, Centerville. Interment was Wednesday in Holy Ghost Cemetery under direction of Chapel of the Palms.

Prospective students, who will be screened before acceptance, may enroll at the sheriff's substation.

MORE GRAVEL PITS ASKED AT NILES

Expansion of gravel-digging operations along Alameda Creek near Niles was foreshadowed this week with word that the firm of Rhodes and Jamison Ltd., which already operates a gravel plant on the Centerville side, is seeking to develop a pit at the end of Roeding Road.

The company will present its petition before the County Planning Commission next Wednesday afternoon.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Niles Chamber of Commerce this week. Secretary Vernon Ellsworth said Rhodes and Jamison has bought 45 acres of land formerly owned by Santa Cruz Portland Cement.

The application implies there will be no processing of the quarried gravel on the site, but that it will be transported across the creek bed by tractors to the Centerville side. The acreage already is surrounded by other quarries, according to the petition.

Chamber President Peter Juhl asked if any objections had been raised, and Ellsworth said he had heard of none, adding the company trucks will not travel through Niles, and that the property is well back from the railroad tracks.

Ellsworth also reported on another "quarry" matter. He said he had spoken to Norman Rose, whose deep-cut truck road on the hillside south of Canyon Heights has aroused ire from several residents, notably Jack Prouty. Ellsworth said Rose again denied he contemplates a quarry on the site.

Neither Rose nor Prouty were on hand for the meeting.

NEWARK NEWS

By PAT COLLINS

MOTHERS of pre-kindergarten children in Newark, Centerville, Irvington and Niles met this week to discuss the possibility of organizing a cooperative nursery school. The school would include children from two years up to kindergarten age. The mothers' group, of which Mrs. Merle Witcraft of Newark is temporary chairman and Mrs. Paul Melvin of Centerville, secretary, hope to engage a teacher for five days a week from 9 a.m. to noon. The program would be financed through the Adult Education System if possible. Committees have been organized to (1) seek the location for the school with the best facilities at the lowest cost, (2) investigate established nursery schools in San Lorenzo. Before definite plans can be sent to the Board of Education, a constitution must be drawn up concerning the operation of the school. Registration of children already has been completed and closed.

MR. and MRS. TONY SILVA of Newark were accompanied on a trip to Reno over the recent holidays by friends from Gustine. Betty Silva stayed with her five-year old cousin, Shirley Paveo, in Gustine, returning home Monday with Vendell Mings of Newark.

MR. and MRS. CHET CHITLenden of Vallejo spent last week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Grace.

A SECOND CHILD has arrived at the Tony Goularte home on Dairy Avenue. Making her appearance into the world on the first day of September was a seven-pound, four-ounce baby girl, Rita Cecilia. Little Rita has a brother, Tony Jr.

MR. and MRS. ALVIN SILVA celebrated their first anniversary Monday. Attending a dinner at the Silva home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kroome and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rice and daughter.

ST. JOSEPH'S Catholic Church in Mission San Jose was the setting for the marriage of Daniel David Goularte of Newark and Myrtle Claire Brown last Sunday. Miss Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arthur Brown of Oakdale, chose a full-length gown of organza for her wedding. She carried a white prayer book with two white orchids. The bride was attended by her sister, Eleanor Brown, in a gown of yellow with which she carried orchid gladioli. Barbara Goularte and Mrs. Ralph Whitaker also were in the bride's party. Both wore dresses of light green and carried orchid gladioli. The flower girl was little Robin Brown, sister of the bride. She was dressed in a yellow gown and carried green gladioli to match those of the maid of honor.

The groom's best man was his brother, Tony Goularte. Ushers were Lionel Goularte and Ralph Whitaker. Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goularte of Newark. He is a graduate of Washington High School where he excelled in football. At present he is a student at Santa Clara University.

The reception after the wedding was held at the Warm Springs Grammar School. The couple are honeymooning in the Redwoods.

LAST SEMESTER'S high school seniors who will be this semester's college freshmen are Emily Jane Scott, who is enrolled at the University of California; Pat Collins, who will be commuting to Oakland each week-day to attend the College of the Holy Names; Marty Sammon, who is registered at Santa Clara University; and Barbara Johnson and Rosemary Gunn, who will attend San Jose State.

MR. and MRS. WAYNE THIESSEN, with their sons Rodney and David, were visitors at the Sacramento State Fair last Saturday. Also attending the Fair last week-end was Mrs. Sam Scott.

MRS. HARRY HALL of San Francisco spent the week-end with the Marty Sammons. Mrs. Hall helped celebrate the birthday anniversary of her three-year old granddaughter, Lynn.

A TRIP to Stockton and a visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry J. Webb, was enjoyed by Mrs. Sam Scott over the Labor Day holiday.

By WES SEARS

Five years ago New York treated Hollywood's infant telefilm industry with disdain. TV had to be live, claimed the Gotham know-it-alls. Well, the public couldn't tell the difference, evidently, and the video industry itself estimated that between 50 and 70 per cent of all TV shows will eventually be on film. . . . perhaps by next Spring. For example, Alan Young has had a four-month fight with CBS over filming his shows for the coming season. Alan won. . . . they'll be filmed. His protest was that last season, because of failure of mechanical props and limited stage space some of his best gags and antics were lost.

And, as we have said before, Hollywood's big-name stars, who three years ago treated TV frigidly, are diving into TV films by the droves. And some of movie-land's top directors are planning video film series. . . .

The electronics industry, which, of course, is television, is facing one of its biggest upswings in history starting next month and continuing through 1953. The reason, of course, is the ruling of the FCC providing for 2,053 new telecasting stations. As one expert put it: "With approximately 25 of these new TV stations expected to begin operations in the last quarter of 1952, and with an additional 150 more slated to begin telecasting during 1953, new production records should be set all along the line on electronic items."

Television is going full speed ahead. Nothing, it seems, is going to stop it. All evidence at this time points to bigger and better shows. Don't miss out on this, come in and see our stock of top video sets: RCA VICTOR, AD-MIRAL AND HOFFMAN. Come in at

FIRST-AID TEAMS NEED RECRUITS HERE

Nurses, first-aid workers, and clerical assistants are urgently needed to staff Southern Alameda County's civil defense volunteer first-aid team, Dr. James C. Malcolm said today.

"Washington Township residents who are graduate nurses or first aiders, and experienced clerical workers can serve a vital need in the community by volunteering for the civil defense medical-health services," the county health directors stated.

Recruitment is in charge of Herbert Roy Davis Jr., health department sanitarian serving as a civil defense assistant. Volunteers should apply to him by mail or phone at 576 Callan Avenue, San Leandro.

No special training courses will be required of recruits, Davis pointed out; and volunteers will be asked to attend a maximum of four general briefing meetings a year.

First-aid teams are directed by physicians, dentists, and veterinarians, aided by graduate nurses, first aiders, clerical aides, and litter bearers.

Teams will be asked to function in the event of any disaster

WOMEN'S GROUP NAMES OBJECTS

The "Women for Better Government," meeting Tuesday evening, August 26, at Washington Union High School, voted to hold alternate meetings in the evening, to encourage township business women to attend. The next meeting will be held in the Niles library on September 23, at 10 a.m.

The objects of this non-partisan group are: (1) to inspire voters to exercise their privileges of citizenship; (2) to encourage citizens to become intellectually informed on all issues; (3) to elevate standards of service in our public affairs; (4) to foster a wholesome spirit of cooperation between our public officials and citizens; and (5) to stimulate interest among our future voters, so that they will be interested in and participate more actively in public affairs.

Mrs. Harold Korell, chairman of the group, has extended an invitation to all women interested in better government to attend the next meeting, or any future meeting.

Southern Alameda County's part in the $2,797,836 East Bay United Crusade campaign is to be dramatized at a public meeting tonight in the Cherryland School, Willow and Webster Streets, Hayward.

LOOKING BACK AT IT

This newspaper came out last week in 12 pages and 5,000 copies, and if you've ever tried cultivating a half-section of tomatoes with a short-handled hoe, you'll know what it was like. Newspaper-wise, the implements were the same: a flat-bed press aged about 100 years, a single linotype, a 60-year-old folding machine. Our normal run is under 1,500 copies, in eight pages. The difference was dynamite.

Production started one week ahead of time. Mack and John, our printers, worked the previous Saturday and nights thereafter to whip the news and advertisements into shape. Vivian and the editor fed them the copy. Since the press will handle only four pages at a time, and since each run takes six hours, the first four pages were tossed in the hopper on Wednesday. As they were printed, they were slid into the folder, an unpredictable relic salvaged a few days earlier from another weekly in Livermore.

At first the folder chewed up more papers than it folded. The tapes which carry the papers broke, then broke again. But as time went by, experience came and the process went a little smoother. Even so, it was not until Thursday morning that the first four pages were complete.

On Thursday afternoon the second run was on the press, while Mack linotyped news, composed ads and made up the final run. This was completed after midnight, by which time the folding had fallen behind again, not to be completed until after sun-up Friday, by which time the office looked like Market Street on New Year's Eve. Then of course there was the task of distributing the papers to post office and doorstep.

By Friday afternoon, the staff felt like it had undergone a strenuous week on Omaha Beach. We were more than ready for the three-day week-end.

Putting out a "full-coverage" special edition is a back-breaking chore with the equipment and staff normal to a weekly of our size. Is the game worth the candle? The next few weeks will tell. If non-subscribers who read that special edition are moved to subscribe, the answer is "yes." We think many of them will. If enough of them do, the Township Register will be able to expand its staff, its equipment and its services.

It will be able to keep pace with this growing Township, to afford a medium of expression and assistance through the difficult growing pains ahead.

That's the reason we knocked ourselves out to give the Township a full-coverage paper. Not because we enjoy a beating.

THANKS—A MILLION!

It was no great surprise last month when the California Legislature submitted for voter approval a $185,000,000 bond issue. Chief reason for the special session of the Legislature was action on the school building crisis, which had aroused the anxious interest of business, civic and educational groups.

The crisis is one that has been growing more serious under the pressure of population growth—millions of new school children "outgrowing" classroom space. By its action, the Legislature assured the bond issue a place on the November 4 ballot. For that action, there is no question that the legislators are entitled to thanks by the million from the citizens of California.

People will also have the opportunity to solve the other serious public school problem—that of skyrocketing per-capita school operating costs—through approval of Proposition 2, which has already qualified for the ballot. Proposition 2 is not a bond issue. It increases State aid to the schools to offset the twin pressures of inflation and increased population in districts like Decoto.

A "Yes" vote on both public school propositions will be in keeping with the traditions of a State that has always been proud of the educational standards set and maintained for its youth.

MYSTERY MAN HERE 22 YEARS

The past two weeks we have devoted the mystery column to men named Juhl (one pronounced Juhl and one pronounced Yuhl).

This week we offer a little variety from the name of Juhl. He's a prominent township man. If you can't guess his identity, read through the columns of this issue. You will find the answer.

He was born in Colorado.

He started traveling at a very early age, for when he was six years old his mother took him on a trip to Scotland, the land of her birth.

He is a graduate of the University of Montana.

He met the girl who was to become his wife when she was a freshman and he was a senior student. He was her instructor in chemical laboratory.

His first position was with a large copper refinery, Anaconda. Later he worked for the state and federal government, in agricultural experiment stations.

From there he went to Chile, where he worked as a test plant engineer for the Chile Exploration Company, a subsidiary of Anaconda. He worked in South America only a short time, returning to the United States and taking up residence in California.

After living in San Francisco for a while, he moved to the township where he has lived for the past 22 years.

He has been very active in Boy Scout work; three years as scoutmaster, and twelve years on the troop committee.

He is past president of a local Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of the board of trustees of just about any organization you could mention. He is also past master of the Masonic Lodge (Montana).

He is the father of two children, both graduates of Washington High. His son was graduated from San Jose State last year, and his daughter was graduated from W. U.H.S. this past June, and is planning to attend the University of California this fall.

His wife is a school teacher. He is employed at Morton Salt. Guess who!

FAIR AND WARMER

I was at the State Fair last week-end.

The Fair always reminds me of one big bake-oven. Everybody thrown in a jumble, to come out the proper degrees of doneness. I, personally, became very well done. In fact I was scorched. The temperature was set well above 100 degrees.

I was allowed to cool off on a rack (more properly called the grandstand) in the evening at the Jack Benny show.

Prior to that I had found that the telephone building was the coolest place on the fair grounds. But one eventually gets a little bored with nothing to do but look at black mouthpieces.

The most interesting sight I saw at the Fair—with the possible exception of George Oakes, Centerville publisher, vigorously shaking the hand of Governor Warren—was an animated life-size model of a Hawaiian girl doing the hula. If your eyes weren't too good, you might think she was real.

Another very interesting thing—all of the produce in every exhibit was FRESH. (If this would seem to reflect on any other fair, it was meant to.)

The races drew the usual big crowd. I came in first in the fifth. (Lest someone get the idea I was running, I'd better clarify this statement by saying that I first came into the grandstand during the fifth race.) I never could understand why people sit for hours in the heat waiting for horses to run, when they could lose their money much faster—and under much cooler conditions—if they went to Reno instead.

P.T.A. COMMITTEE

The program committee of the Washington High P.T.A. met recently for luncheon at the International Kitchen to formulate plans for the ensuing school year.

Mrs. J. A. Silva, president, had as her guests: Mrs. J. O. Hindmarsh, first vice-president; Mrs. William Chivers, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Guy Austin and dance hall. "No slick floors. No fancy doings. The customers feel at home. If you doll up too much, they'll go someplace else."

So far, receipts have proved him correct. The customers continue to flock in, old folks and kids alike, to listen and to jitterbug to "music from the heart."

"It's what everybody's looking for," says Cottonseed Clark, nodding the white Stetson, and venturing into another field. "You know, it's what Eisenhower and Stevenson are looking for, too. The one that's got the most heart-appeal's going to win."

LAST RITES FOR V. A. DeVincenzi

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Chapel of the Palms for Victor A. DeVincenzi, 54, mill worker, of Fair Ranch Road, Alvarado.

DeVincenzi died Friday in a San Jose hospital following a brief illness. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Survivors include DeVincenzi's widow, Everett; a son, LaVerne, of Newark; a daughter, Mrs. Florence Matheson of San Leandro; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Waidley of Oakland and Mrs. Bobbie Lewis of Orinda, and a brother, Eddie Cerasole of Berkeley.

The dead man was formerly a member of IDES Lodge No. 2, of Alvarado.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

CHIFFON OR PLAIN, PECAN PIE IS GOOD

by the
General Electric Consumers Institute

You can never have too many pie recipes, and there'll be a special place in the recipe file for a summer party pie as light and fluffy looking as Butterscotch Pecan Chiffon Pie.

Here's the General Electric Consumers Institute recipe:

Butterscotch Pecan Chiffon Pie

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute

1 envelope plain unflavored gelatin (1 tablespoon)
3 tablespoons water
3 egg yolks
3 egg whites
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 cup milk, scalded
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 cup salted pecans, coarsely chopped
1 baked 9-inch pie shell
Soften gelatin in water for 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Gradually beat in 1/2 cup brown sugar, then milk. Add butter and salt. Cook in 2-quart saucepan on a medium heat, stirring until slightly thickened. Remove from unit. Stir in gelatin; cool. Add vanilla extract. Chill in refrigerator until almost completely firm. Remove from refrigerator and stir vigorously. Beat egg whites until glossy and stiff. Add 1/4 cup brown sugar and beat to a stiff meringue. Fold with nuts into chilled thickened custard. Pour into pie shell. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Garnish with whole pecans if desired. Makes one 9-inch pie.

There's no more delicious way to end a summertime meal than with iced tea and Butterscotch Pecan Chiffon Pie.

And here's a Pecan Pie recipe for those who like their pie minus the chiffon texture. This one is baked in the oven of your electric range.

Pecan Pie

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute
1 1/4 cups sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/4 cup butter or margarine
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup unsalted pecans
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 9-inch unbaked pie shell
Combine sugar, corn syrup and butter in 2-quart saucepan. Bring to boil on a high heat, stirring constantly until butter is melted. Remove from unit and gradually add hot syrup to beaten eggs, stirring constantly. Add pecans to first mixture and cool to lukewarm. Add vanilla extract to filling. Pour filling into pie shell. Bake in oven 350°F for 40-45 minutes. Makes one 9-inch pie.
